The 12 Days of Christmas

Friday, December 10, 2004

FOX NEWS
"Dayside" celebrates the holidays with a new segment — The 12 Days of Christmas.

Beginning December 8, we're bringing you a twist on the old song by showing you ideas for giving to good causes this holiday season.

Day 3: Giving gift baskets to seniors and toys to disabled children

Linda Dee, director of volunteer services for the Colorado branch of Volunteers of America (search), shared how hundreds of volunteers are assembling gift baskets for homebound seniors in the Denver area.

And Julie Jacono, a volunteer for Replay for Kids (search) explained how her organization collects toys and then repair and adapt toys for children with disabilities in Northeast Ohio.

To find out more about these projects, visit their Websites below or send donations directly to the following addresses:

Day 2: Keeping troops connected to their families back home

Guy Gane, M-ONE Financial Services Director and John Kaczorowski, the president of the Buffalo AFL-CIO Council have organized a campaign to send phone cards to U.S. troops overseas.

To donate to the Connecting Our Troops Campaign — send checks payable to AT&T to the following address:

WNY AFL-CIO Area Labor Federation
295 Main Street, Room 832
Ellicott Square Building
Buffalo, NY 14203

For more information, call 716-852-0375.

Day 1: Sending care packages to troops overseas

Becky Mizener's son Jesse was serving in Iraq and she often wrote and sent him care packages to share with his buddies in uniform. Sadly, Jesse was killed in Iraq, but his mother continued to send packages to the men and women serving overseas. Mizener is the founder of "Packed with Pride," and shared the story of her care package campaign with "Dayside."
